

OUR FASHION LETTER.

Both Empire and Princess Styles
In Children's Dresses.

SHORT SLEEVES ARE COSTLY.

The Best Linen Suits Made With a Bolero and Chemise—Old Fashioned Crossbar Muslin Again In Vogue—Parasol Like Costume.

Whole dresses of Valenciennes lace are among the exquisite creations worn at important early summer functions.
Most of them are relieved with the finer forms of heavier laces, such as cherry and baby Irish.

Browns, both the real brown tones and those that verge upon the chestnut, are the predominating shades for delicate scroll in a faint color and within this magic territory embroder tiny initials.

Crystalline is another material that is especially adapted for the sweet girl graduates' gowns.

Some of the graduating frocks are made princess, but as a rule this style is not becoming to youthful figures.

Very natty to wear with the linen collar is a lingerie tie of soft batiste adorned in some pretty fashion at the ends. This tie is small, forming only a tiny bow.

The newest tie is knitted like the one in the cut, but is quite unlike the old knitted tie, as it is very quickly done, and has a pretty openwork effect.

Two evenings will amply suffice to begin and finish one. There are now such pretty silks to be procured in the loveliest colors. A particular shade of blue mauve is charming for a knitted tie.

PRACTICAL FASHION HINTS.

Fashion decrees that the parasol shall match the costume. This fortunately does not mean that a sunshade is to be provided for each gown. On the contrary, the clever woman will choose several pretty parasols that will harmonize with anything old or new that her wardrobe contains.

Short sleeves are a very expensive luxury, as they demand upon outdoor costumes a long glove. A practical

LINGERIE GOWN.

glove economy is the separate monsequaire arm coverings that can be used with short sleeves in matching color.

Considering the general elaboration of gowns, a number of French frocks are finished at the bottom merely with rows of stufing.

Some of the loveliest silks of the season have a waterproof finish, rendering them impervious to rain and perspiration.

The stunning sash ribbons must be used with care, as they have a habit of clashing with most things under heavens.

Long ladders of ribbon bows, sometimes with a bit of fringe depending from them, are a favorite mode of trimming.

Women who scorned rajah silk in the beginning of the season and asserted it was only fit for lambrequins and sofa cushions are recognizing its adaptability for house gowns and street frocks. One of the summer brides is having made a street costume of grass green rajah silk with folds and other trimmings of old rose.

She has embroidered the grass and rose petals on the front width of the skirt, with a smaller vine trailing over the jacket. The gown is as rich and effective as if it was made from the handsomest Lyons silk instead of the rough and ready rajah.

The elaborate lingerie gown illustrated is of lace trimmed handkerchief linen. With it is worn a Louis coat of brocaded aile green silk incrustated with lace.

JUDIC COLLETT.

Four Little Kittens.
Once four little, wise little kittens
Put together their wise little heads,
Said the four little, wise little kittens,
"We will seek for tonight nice soft beds."

So these four little, wise little kittens
Up stairs and down crept about,
And into the closets and corners
They peeped, and no one found them out.

And these four little, wise little kittens Found a basket so nice and so deep, Where mamma kept the stockings for mending.

And softly within they did creep,
But these four little, wise little kittens Soon found the nice basket too small For four little, wise little kittens,
And out again quick they did crawl.

The Reason.

He—Why is genius so often misunderstood?
She—Probably it's because genius so frequently fails to talk plainly.

His Limitations.

He may be all right to face the powder, but when he kisses a lady the color leaves his face.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Equally Delightful.

Fred—I suppose there is nothing that pleases a woman more than the devoted attention of the man of her choice.
Gladys—Except perhaps the devoted attention of the man of some other girl's choice.

A Fatal Symptom.

The Kid—Wat impulse prevented me from sponkin' her wit' dis ole tomato?
Kin it be I'm fallin' in love?—New York World.

The Absentminded Professor.
"For goodness' sake put out that beastly cat. It's been yelling frantically for the last half hour!"

Questions and Answers.
"What is a Bohemian?"
"A person who is willing to divide your money."
"And what is a person who is willing to divide his own money?"
"A hopeless lunatic."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Race for the Chew and the Chew for the Race!

Don't waste any time trying to get a better chew. There is none!
For over forty years competitors have been hustling to equal "Star" quality—to equal "Star" sales—to equal "Star" value—and still "Star" sells as much as any other five brands put together.

STAR PLUG CHEWING TOBACCO

is made only of choicest ripe, sweet, elastic leaf which chews waxy and rich until every bit of the wholesome juice is chewed out of it.

A 10c. piece of "Star" lasts twice as long as bigger pieces of cheaper kinds—which makes "Star" the most economical chew in the long run.

No satisfaction like a "Star" chew!

150,000,000 10c. pieces sold annually.

In All Stores

A Gentle Hint.

He—You ought to have something around your throat to protect it from the drafts.
She—Yes, a diamond and pearl collaret would do nicely!

An Awful Jolt.

DeAuber (proudly)—Here's a painting I have just finished. What do you think of it, old man?
Criticus—It isn't half bad. By the way, did you draw on your imagination for those ostriches in the background?

DeAuber—Ostriches! Why, you sneaky eyed duffer, those are angels!
—Chicago News.

A Compromise.

Lord Brokeleigh (pompously)— I've called, sir, to request your daughter's hand in marriage.
Mr. Roxley—That's out of the question, my man. However, I don't want to seem altogether uncharitable, so here's $5 for you.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Some Uses For Ammonia.

After the carpets have had their beating nothing restores them so much and brightens the dull surface as a rub over with a cloth wrung out of ammonia and water, and for cleaning white enameled furniture there is no better treatment than whiting mixed with water, to which a little of this magic fluid has been added. Ammonia may be put to splendid use in the laundry, and there is no better plan when washing flannels and all woolen garments than to add some ammonia to the water.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

The Language of Love as Practiced by Two.

(Scene: Dimly lighted parlor, 11:30 p. m.)

"Oos ducky is oo?"

"Oors."

"Does 'ittle ducky love its dorey?"

"Ess."

"Ever 'n' ever?"

"Ess."

"How much?"

"Bushels."

"Ooooooo!"

"Ooooooo!"

(Long silence. Smackings. More, Sighs of sleepy bliss.)

"Does oo lumme?"

"Ooo know I do. Lumme too?"

"Do I!"

(More ecstatic silence. Yum, yum!)

"Oooooo!"

"A-a-a-a-h!"

(Etc., etc., ad lib. for three hours more.)

They speak of the language of love. I have had an intimate acquaintance with jags. The only difference between the language of love and the language of a jag is two hiccougs and a gurgle.—Judge.

A Modern Romeo.

Amelia—Swear not by the moon, the inconstant moon.
Augustus—Then what shall I swear by?

"Swear by that which you hold invaluable, something which is dearer to you than all things else, something that you cannot live without."
"Then, Amelia, I love you! I swear it by my salary!"—New York Weekly.

The Moon Only 120 Miles Away.

Our boys and girls need not wonder at the maps that the astronomers have made of the moon or at what they tell us about its surface, for, although it is really 240,000 miles distant from the earth, our most powerful telescopes, magnifying 2,000 diameters, bring it within 120 miles of us, so far as our vision is concerned.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup

Pleasant to take and does not gripe or nauseate Cures Chronic Constipation, Stomach and Liver Trouble

Stimulation Without Irritation.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup is a new laxative syrup combined with the delicious flavor of fruits, and is very pleasant to take. It will not gripe or sicken.
It is much more pleasant and effective than Pills, Tablets and Saline Waters, as it does not derange the Stomach, or irritate the Kidneys, Liver or Bowels.

Constipation.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup will positively cure chronic constipation as it restores the natural action of the intestinal tract. Ordinary cathartics may give temporary relief but the stomach is upset and the bowels are irritated without any permanent benefit having been derived.

The condition of the patient remains unchanged. The Stomach, Liver and Bowels have not been stimulated and in a few days a stronger purgative may have to be taken. This is why Pills and Aperient Waters never give permanent relief.

Their violent action results in an unattention movement of the bowels and it is necessary to keep taking them indefinitely.

Why ORINO is different.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup is the only preparation that really acts upon all of the digestive organs. Other preparations act upon the lower bowel only and do not touch the Liver. It can very readily be seen that a preparation that does not act upon all of the digestive organs can not cure Chronic Constipation, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, etc.

For Biliousness and Sick Headache.

Take ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup. It sweetens the stomach, aids digestion and acts as a gentle stimulant on the liver and bowels without irritating these organs.

Clears the Complexion.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and thoroughly cleanses the system and clears the complexion of pimples and blotches. It is the best laxative for women and children as it is mild and pleasant, and does not gripe or sicken. Refuse substitutes.
